CHECK POINT INCREASES OFFER PRICE FOR PROTECT DATA AND EXTENDS OFFER PERIOD

- The offer is increased to SEK 187 per Protect Data share
- Shareholders holding in total approximately 41 percent of Protect Data's outstanding shares have committed to accept the offer subject to certain conditions
- The acceptance period is extended until January 8, 2007

RAMAT-GAN, Israel and STOCKHOLM, Sweden -- December 19, 2006 — Check Point® Software Technologies Ltd. (NASDAQ: CHKP), the worldwide leader in securing the Internet, today amended its cash tender offer to acquire Protect Data AB (publ) (PROT.ST). The initial tender offer was announced on November 20, 2006, through a wholly owned subsidiary of Check Point, C.P.S.T. Sweden Holdings AB.

- The amended offer price is SEK 187 per Protect Data share, compared to SEK 180 previously
- The amended offer price is SEK 250 per warrant (2005/2008) and SEK 88 per warrant (2006/2009) in Protect Data, compared to SEK 236 and SEK 85 previously
- The total value of the amended offer amounts to approximately SEK 4,314 million or US $625 million, compared to approximately SEK 4,152 million or US $586 million previously
- The acceptance period is extended until January 8, 2007, inclusive. Provided that Check Point announces that the conditions to the offer have been fulfilled or waived no later than January 11, 2007, settlement is expected to commence on or about January 16, 2007.

Other terms and conditions set forth in the original offer remain unchanged and apply to the amended offer, including the right to waive such conditions. The offer is subject to a minimum acceptance of more than 90 percent of all of the shares of Protect Data, before as well as after dilution, receipt of regulatory approvals and other customary conditions.

In addition to Protect Data's largest shareholder, Monterro Holding Ltd., the following large shareholders have now also committed, subject to certain conditions, to accept the offer: Swedbank Robur Funds, Catella Funds, Nordea Investment Funds, Carnegie Funds, Banco Funds, Cancale Förvaltnings AB, Radar, Thomas Blitz, Peter Knafve and Mats Hentzel. In total, these shareholders, including Monterro Holding Ltd., represent approximately 41 percent of the outstanding shares of Protect Data.

Shareholders and holders of warrants who have already tendered their shares will be included in the increased offer without further action.

Forward-looking statements

This press release and related offer documentation may contain forward-looking statements. These statements appear throughout such documentation and are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the expected timetable for closing the acquisition and the expected future business of Protect Data, Check Point and/or Check Point Holdings resulting from and following the Offer. These statements reflect Protect Data's or Check Point Holdings' respective management's current expectations based upon information currently available to them and are subject to various assumptions, as well as risks and uncertainties that may be outside of their control. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in such forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including: the conditions to completion of the deal may not be satisfied or the parties may not be able to achieve all of the benefits of the transaction within the expected time frames or at all; Check Point may experience unanticipated expenses in connection with the acquisition; Check Point may not be able to successfully integrate Pointsec's operations into those of Check Point and may experience a loss of customers, employees and business disruption; and other factors described in Check Point's Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 which is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Any such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and neither Check Point, Check Point Holdings nor Protect Data undertake any obligation to update or revise any of them, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
