Dear Security Professional,

I am excited to personally invite you to attend CPX 360 in Barcelona. Check Point Experience 360 promises to be the premier cyber security event of 2018. We'll have an outstanding lineup of the world's leading cyber security experts to brief you on upcoming threats and trends, get you hands-on with the latest production-ready solutions, and give you a sneak peek at what is on the product roadmap for 2018.

Registration is now open for CPX Barcelona - 23 to 25 January 2018.

For information about this year's speakers and conference sessions as well as registration and travel information, visit our CPX 360 website. Register right away and secure your flights and hotel accommodations.

I look forward to seeing you at CPX 360!

Best Regards,

Peter Alexander
