

Phoenix International Spends 80% Less Time on IT Security Thanks to Check Point

Phoenix International protects its corporate data worldwide with Check Point Next Generation Security Gateway, centralizing management and ensuring business continuity

Phoenix International is a successful Italian multinational corporation, producing steel dies for aluminum products

Industry: Manufacturing

“We cut the time we spend on managing security by 80% and, thanks to the simplicity of the Check Point solution, 90% of our daily IT security activities are now automated.”

— Stefano Biava, IT Manager,
Phoenix International

Challenge

- Protect corporate data and confidential project details in all branches around the world
- Safeguard employee privacy
- Standardize on one security vendor at all branch offices to improve efficiency and simplify IT security management

Solution

- Check Point Next Generation Firewall
- Check Point R80.10 Security Management

Results

- Complete protection from external cyber attacks
- Easy and efficient centralized security management
- Consolidated solution
- Automated 90% of IT security activities

Share this story

Learn more at:
Checkpoint.com/customer-stories/